SUMMARY

I am a third-year college student at Posts and Telecommunications Institute of Technology (PTIT). I have knowledge about backend development with Java, Spring and Hibernate.

As a third-year college student, I am looking for an opportunity to study and work in a company to expand my real world knowledge and experience. Viettel is a corporation known for its innovative and challenging environment, so I am eager to apply myself to the Viettel Digital Talent program. At Viettel I have the chance to challenge myself with hard problems and work with people here.
